

JOHN J. REED

Chairman of the Board

John J. Reed is a financial and economic consultant with an impressive 48 years of experience in the energy industry.

Throughout his career, Mr. Reed has experienced a remarkable career journey, serving as the CEO of an NASD member securities firm and Co-CEO of one of the nation's largest publicly traded management consulting firms. As Chairman of the Board at Concentric, he builds on his decades of experience in ratemaking, regulation, energy economics, and finance to provide executive-level advisory services on the energy transition, regulatory policy, and corporate strategy to industry participants throughout North America.

After graduation from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, Mr. Reed began his career at Southern California Gas Company, where he worked in the regulatory and financial groups. He ultimately rose to the position of Chief Economist before moving into executive and consulting roles with industry-leading firms. In 1988, Mr. Reed founded REED Consulting Group (RCG), which later became part of Navigant Consulting. He served as an executive at Navigant until he joined Concentric as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, further solidifying his impact on the energy sector.
